FOLK FESTIVITIES

WINTER

- SANT ANTONI: Patron saint of the animals. Bonfires, traditional dances of dimonis (devils) and "beneïdes" (blessing of the animals) take place in the main squares. This is celebrated mainly in Manacor, Artà, Capdepera, Sa Pobla, Son Servera...
- SANT SEBASTIÀ: Patron saint of Palma. Concerts in Palma's most important squares, giant's parade and a cycling day.
- CARNIVAL

SPRING

- EASTER: Some of the most memorable processions take place in the capital city of Palma de Mallorca. The most significant events take place on Maundy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday.
- ES FIRÓ. SÓLLER: The second week in May brings the Es Firo festival to Soller. This is also known as the battle between the Moors and Christians, with Captain Angelats and the two women, Francisca and Catalina Casesnoves, known as Les Valentès Dones.

SUMMER

- SANT JOAN: The "Nit de Sant Joan", the night of Sant Joan, is one of the most popular festivals of Mallorca, the beginning of the summer is celebrated.
- VIRGEN DEL CARMEN FESTIVITY: Patroness of fishermen. Maritime procession in many coastal towns of the island.
- SANT JAUME: Festivity in many towns of Mallorca such as Alcúdia, Santanyí... The traditional dance of the Cossiers in Algaida is one of the most important events.
- BEATA SANTA CATALINA THOMÀS. VALLDEMOSSA: Parade of the carro triunfal in honour of the Blessed Catalina Thomàs through the main streets of the town.
- FIESTA DE LA PATRONA MARE DE DÉU DELS ÀNGELS. POLLENÇA: The Moors and Christians mock battle has become through the years the most important and characteristic act of the Patroness festival. Basically, it is the commemoration of the locals' victory (Christians) over Dragut's corsairs (moors).
- SANT BARTOMEU. MONTUÏRI: Traditional dance of the Cossiers: ancestral dance dating back to 1821.
